Subject: CalPERS Employer eBulletin - Board of Administration Meeting of August 16, 2006

The CalPERS Board of Administration (Board) met today. The Board considers recommendations from individual Board committees and hears other matters related to the administration of retirement benefits, health benefits, and investment management. The following items may be of interest:

Investments

The Board received its annual report from CEM Benchmarking Inc., an information and advisory company which compares the overall cost-effectiveness of CalPERS to that of its peers. The latest CEM report concluded that CalPERS is a "low cost" fund, identifying overall costs as being $120 million lower than that of its peers.
